Mary Roberts Rinehart

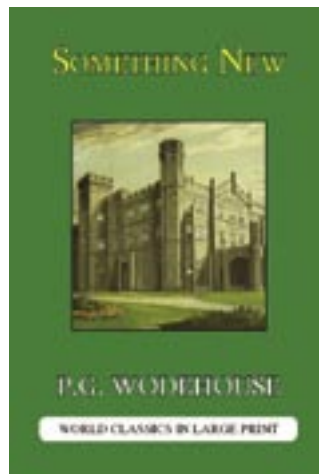

TISH

Although Rinehart is remembered today as the creator of the modern detective story, she was also popular for creating the character of Letitia Carberry, a middle-aged self-reliant spinster and proto-feminist who does unconventional things like race cars, do stunt work, hunt bears and drive an ambulance. Tish and friends Aggie and Lizzie fascinated her readers for a span of 30 years. This collection of five Tish stories includes "Mind over Motor," "Like a Wolf in the Fold," "The Simple Lifers," "Tish's Spy," and "My Country Tish of Thee—."

SOMETHING NEW

This is the novel that introduced the eccentric Lord Emsworth of Blandings Castle and thus began the Blandings Castle Saga, a series of stories that runs parallel to the Jeeves and Bertie Wooster tales and occasionally shares characters. Clarence Threepwood, the absent-minded 9th Earl of Emsworth, unknowingly purloins an Egyptian scarab from a visiting American millionaire, whose daughter is engaged to his son Freddie. The ensuing plot, filled with misunderstandings and romantic complications, is classic Wodehouse comedy.
